

Bury Farm Equestrian Club
New Bury Farm, Mill Road, Slapton
Leighton Buzzard, Beds, LU7 9BT
Tel 01525-222114, Fax 01525-222121

NOTICE TO ALL COMPETITORS FROM 1ST FEBRUARY 2012

Formation of New Company – Bury Farm Equestrian Club Ltd

From the 1st February 2012 all competitions held at Bury Farm Equestrian Village will be run by Bury Farm Equestrian Club Ltd.

In order to be able to avoid VAT charges to customers it has been decided to transfer the activity of Bury Farm Equestrian Centre Ltd to a new club, Bury Farm Equestrian Club, which will be run by a new company limited by guarantee known as Bury Farm Equestrian Club Ltd. The new club will apply for Community Amateur Sports Club status, which when granted will allow members concessions on VAT.

Users of livery and other facilities at Bury Farm, are invited to become members of the new club with effect from 15th November 2011, and in so doing become members of the new company, for a lifetime* membership fee of £5. Non-members will continue to be able to use club facilities but at a 20% higher charge than members, to account for VAT. An application form for membership is available from Reception or online which should be completed and returned to the club, together with a payment of £5, if you wish to participate in the new scheme. If you do not wish to participate as a member of the new club then please take this as notice that VAT will apply to entry fees with effect from 1st February 2012.

The full set of rules and articles applying to the new organisation are on the club website www.buryfarmestates.co.uk if you wish further details, alternatively you can obtain more information by calling Gareth Jenkins or Julia Plotkin at Bury Farm.

Robert Kennedy
Director - Bury Farm Equestrian Club Ltd

*Membership is subject to the member abiding by club rules.

Bury Farm Equestrian Club
New Bury Farm, Mill Road, Slapton
Leighton Buzzard, Beds, LU7 9BT
Tel 01525-222114, Fax 01525-222121

NOTICE TO ALL COMPETITORS FROM 1ST FEBRUARY 2012

Formation of New Company – Bury Farm Equestrian Club Ltd

From the 1st February 2012 all competitions held at Bury Farm Equestrian Village will be run by Bury Farm Equestrian Club Ltd.

In order to be able to avoid VAT charges to customers it has been decided to transfer the activity of Bury Farm Equestrian Centre Ltd to a new club, Bury Farm Equestrian Club, which will be run by a new company limited by guarantee known as Bury Farm Equestrian Club Ltd. The new club will apply for Community Amateur Sports Club status, which when granted will allow members concessions on VAT.

Users of livery and other facilities at Bury Farm, are invited to become members of the new club with effect from 15th November 2011, and in so doing become members of the new company, for a lifetime* membership fee of £5. Non-members will continue to be able to use club facilities but at a 20% higher charge than members, to account for VAT. An application form for membership is available from Reception or online which should be completed and returned to the club, together with a payment of £5, if you wish to participate in the new scheme. If you do not wish to participate as a member of the new club then please take this as notice that VAT will apply to entry fees with effect from 1st February 2012.

The full set of rules and articles applying to the new organisation are on the club website www.buryfarmestates.co.uk if you wish further details, alternatively you can obtain more information by calling Gareth Jenkins or Julia Plotkin at Bury Farm.

Robert Kennedy
Director - Bury Farm Equestrian Club Ltd

*Membership is subject to the member abiding by club rules.